

Videos from day three, WAN Congress Cape Town 2007

Six videos, courtesy of the Zoopy.com team, from day three of 60th World Newspaper Congress in Cape Town.

Day 3 videos

Convergence is new black

Convergence of media has taken centre stage this morning, with examples of restructured UK newsrooms bringing together print, TV, radio and Internet.

Newspapers in the digital age

Douglas Griffen took us through what newspapers need to be moving towards to survive in the digital age.

Twenty ways to improve news sites

A handy and relevant overview of 20 instant improvements that can be made to your website to better communicate with, and involve, your readers.

Trevor Manuel lunch

South Africa's Minister of Finance, Trevor Manuel, joins WAN delegates for lunch. Ebrahim Rasool joined us all as well.

Bachi Karkaria, The Times India

Bachi Karkaria, consulting editor of The Times of India and WEF board member, shares her thoughts and experiences from this year's WAN/WEF congress.

:

Augustus Fallah, Liberia

Augustus Fallah, Liberian journalist and chairperson of the Editors' Association of Liberia, summarises this week's events from his point of view.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>